

November 30, 2017:

Anchors: Leslie & LuLu

Florence Nightingale Award

((Leslie))

I think that it's fair to say that Hampton produces the best of the best. Nineteen-eighty-seven Hampton graduate, Deputy U.S. Surgeon General Rear Ad-mi-ral Sylvia Trent-Adams has received the Red Cross Florence Night-in-gale Medal in Washington, D.C.. This is the highest international recognition that a nurse can receive.

((LuLu))

As a nurse, Deputy Trent-Adams has succeeded many high ranking goals not only as an alumna but as an African-American woman. She is only the SECOND African-American female nurse to serve as surgeon general.

World AIDS Day

((Leslie))

As the semester comes to a close, not only is your mental health important but your physical health as well.

((LuLu))

Friday, December 1st is World AIDS Day. Hampton University's health center has partnered with the Gamma Iota chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. invites all students to take advantage of the free HIV screening and Flu shots.

((Leslie))

Stay on top of your health and stopping by tomorrow, in the Student Center Ballroom, between eleven a.m. and three p.m.

((LuLu))

HIV informational speakers and resources will be available. Refreshments will be provided.

Kwanzaa and Holiday Marketplace

((Leslie))

As December kicks in, the festivities begin. The Hampton University Museum is hosting its 24th Annual Holiday and Kwanzaa Marketplace. This family-friendly weekend will be filled with a number of events.

((Lulu))

The Marketplace kicks off tomorrow at ten a.m. Then later join the evening celebration from five p.m. to seven. Admission is free. Guests are encouraged to bring women's toiletries and clothes to donate to Transitions Family Violence Services.

((Leslie))

The fun doesn't stop there. On Saturday from one p.m. to four p.m. the Jazz Brunch will take place. Admission is twenty dollars for adults and ten dollars for children ten and under.

((Lulu))

Refreshments will be served. Holiday and Kwanzaa gifts from the Museum and vendors will be available for purchase.

Handel's Messiah

((Leslie))

It was produced on this campus nearly twenty years ago and is being revived by popular demand.

((Lulu))

The forces of the strings and vocal sounds ally once again to present "Handel's Messiah."

((Leslie))

Mr. Jerry A. Bracey, Hampton University Chamber Orchestra Director, will be conducting the orchestra musicians, while Hampton University Director of University Choir, Omar Dickerson leads his experts of song.

((Lulu))

The performance focuses on the birth, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Tune into this classic composition on Sunday, December third at four p.m. in Ogden Hall.

December 3, 2017:

Anchors: Leslie and Kandis

HU/HU Football Game

((Leslie))

The rivalry is back! Who's still the real HU? Will the Pirates or the Bisons fight their way to the top?

((Kandis))

Find out all the answers at this week's highly anticipated annual HU/HU football game. Feed into the fun on Saturday November 18th at one o'clock in Armstrong Stadium.

"HU Players" for Black Nativity

((Leslie))

The Hampton Players and Company are embracing our culture and telling a story like none other. They are back to business performing an African-American tradition, the Black Nativity. This is a play that you do not want to miss, directed by the award winning Dr. Karen Ward and choreographed by special educator, Faye Walker.

((Kandis))

Support the Players and enjoy the show on December first through second at eight pm. If those days don't work, check out the Mat-in-nay on Sunday December third at three p.m. All shows will take place in Armstrong Hall, Little Theatre.

Miss Black and Gold Pageant

((Leslie))

The Brothers of black and gold are here to emphasize empowerment and execution. The Gamma Iota Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Incorporated selected eleven ladies to compete for the 2017-2018 title of Miss Black and Gold. Not only is the crown up for grabs but a scholarship award as well. The pageant, directed by Miss Hampton Brooklyn Baker, will take place on November twenty-eighth, Tuesday afternoon at seven-o-six p.m in Ogden Hall.

November 7, 2017:

Miss Omega Psi Phi Pageant

((Alexis))

Next week is Omega week and the Brothers of the Gamma Epsilon Chapter of Omega Psi Phi have a lot in store for us.

((Raichele))

Yes, they have hosted the Miss “Que-lup-chu-us” Pageant last semester and they’re back with a new scholarship pageant. Ten ladies will be competing for the unheld title of Miss Omega Psi Phi.

((Alexis))

The brothers will stroll and ladies will strut the stage on Wednesday, November 15 at 7:11pm.

Manafort and Gates Under House Arrest

((Raichele))

The grand jury released an indictment containing 12 counts against former Trump campaign officials, Paul Manafort and Richard Gates for gaining millions of dollars in illegal income after acting as unregistered Ukrainian agents of government.

((Alexis))

The accusations include money laundering, conspiracy against the U.S., false statements, failure to file foreign bank reports and more. Last week, both men stood before US District Magistrate Judge Deborah Robinson pleading not guilty.

((Raichele))

After their hearing in Washington, both remain on house arrest and GPS monitoring without bail until more financial information has been released.

February 14, 2018:

Attacker slashes churchgoers with sword, injuring 5 in Indonesia:

((Anchor 1))

A sword bearing attacker invades a church in Indonesia, interrupting churchgoers in prayer. After managing to push past security to enter Santa Lidwina Church in the Yogyakarta province of Java, the attacker left five church members injured and he was ultimately hospitalized as a result of police open fire.

Baltimore Police Tampering w Evidence

((Anchor 2))

A Baltimore police officer, Richard Pinheiro, was indicted this week by a City Grand Jury for police misconduct and tampering with evidence. The reviewal of body camera footage led to the indictment. While Pinheiro will continue to be suspended without pay for the duration of court proceedings, the officer faces up to three years in prison and $5,000 in fines.

Meghan McCain, The View

((Anchor 1))

Meghan McCain, the daughter of presidential candidate, John McCain, and recent addition to The View is raising the bar when it comes to viewer ratings. Her unpopular opinion on the show was talked about by many, including CNN and Washington Times who both spoke about McCain bringing a “Conservative View” to more of a liberal environment. McCain touched on topics concerning her support for Trump and “Trumpism.”

February 21, 2018:

The Platform Spoken Word Event

Celebrate Black History Month, enjoy the art of music and poetry, and give back to the Hampton community all in one night! Come out to the Platform Spoken Word Event to view a show of various genres, right now in the Armstrong Hall, Little Theatre.

Black History Month Extravaganza

The most highly anticipated Black History Month event is just around the corner, and it's a production that you don't want to miss. Join the Student Leadership Program in celebrating our Black History through music, dance, and acting in Ogden Hall tomorrow at 7pm.

Stand Your Ground Against Bullying- Youth Step Show

Hampton's own, Blue Lightning, has partnered with group, 'Parents Against Bullying' to host their 5th annual step show, 'Stand Your Ground Against Bullying Youth.' Bring your friends and family out this Saturday, February 24th at 10 am in Ogden Hall to support the middle school and high school students of Hampton roads step for charity.

March 22, 2018:

Jazz Festival

The fifty-first annual Hampton Jazz Festival has now announced their line up including well-known award winning artists varying from Jazmine Sullivan and Gregory Porter to Frankie Beverly and Boyz II Men. Tickets are currently priced at seventy-six dollars per seat and per day. You can make your purchase starting this Saturday at 10 a.m. online at Ticketmaster-dot-com or at the Hampton Coliseum Box Office. For additional information visit the site, Hampton-Jazz-Festival-dot-com.

Hampton Players

Coming up this weekend, The Hampton Players and Company will be performing the play "Much Ado About Nothing," in Armstrong Hall, Little Theatre. This is a hard to miss play and will be taking place this Friday and Saturday, March twenty-third and twenty-fourth at 8 p.m., with a Sunday matinee at 3 p.m.

Self Esteem Workshop

Yesterday the sisters of the Rho Alpha Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. hosted a workshop, teaching young girls about building and maintaining their self-esteem. The ladies indicated that their purpose was to celebrate one of the sorority's principles, finer womanhood, while bonding with the participants.

April 19, 2018:

ROTC Military Ball

((QUAN))

The sale is up and the ball is rolling. Hampton University ROTC will be celebrating their 70th Annual Military Ball. The gathering will take place tomorrow, 6 p.m at the Paradise Ocean Club in Fort Monroe, Virginia.

October 10, 2018:

Google Plus Shutdown

((Anchor 1))

THIS PAST MONDAY, GOOGLE HAS ANNOUNCED THAT IT WILL BE SHUTTING DOWN GOOGLE PLUS FOR ALL USERS DUE TO A DISCOVERED SECURITY BUG THAT HAS EXPOSED THE PERSONAL INFORMATION OF UP TO FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND PERSONAL ACCOUNTS ON ITS SOCIAL NETWORK. GOOGLE PUBLICALLY WITHHELD THIS INFORMATION FOR SIX-MONTHS.

October 18, 2018:

Update on Hurricane Michael

((Anchor 1))

HURRICANE MICHAEL, ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL STORMS IN RECENT U.S. HISTORY HAS NOW CLAIMED SEVEN MORE LIVES, RAISING THE CONFIRMED DEATH TOLL TO THIRTY-THREE. WHILE FLORIDA HAS BEEN HIT THE HARDEST BY THIS CATEGORY 4 STORM, THERE HAVE BEEN TEN REPORTED DEATHS ACROSS GEORGIA, VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA. HOWEVER, THE DEATH TOLL IS EXPECTED TO INCREASE AS OFFICIALS SEARCH FOR MORE THAN ONE THOUSAND-ONE HUNDRED UNACCOUNTED PEOPLE. THOUSANDS OF FLORIDA RESIDENTS REMAIN WITHOUT POWER THROUGH THESE TROUBLING TIMES.

April 12, 2019:

HU JAZZ WEEK

((MECCA))

THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC HAS PUT TOGETHER THREE SHOWS TO PERFORM FOR HU JAZZ WEEK

WITH YESTERDAY BEING THEIR FIRST.

FOLLOWING SHOWS TAKE PLACE TONIGHT AND TOMORROW AT 8PM IN OGDEN HALL. DOORS OPEN AT 7:30.

MICHIGAN ENDS FREE BOTTLED WATER

((MECCA))

AS OF THIS MONTH, FLINT, MICHIGAN OFFICIALS HAVE MADE THE DECISION TO TERMINATE THEIR FREE BOTTLED WATER PROGRAM.

ALTHOUGH MICHIGAN HAS CLAIMED THAT THE PIPE WATER CONDITIONS HAVE NOW BEEN RESTORED, RESIDENTS RESPOND IN FEAR STATING THAT THEY “STILL DON’T TRUST THE WATER.”

Uber Buys Jump Bike

((ANCHOR 2))

Uber has now included bicycles and subway rides by purchasing the company Jumpbike, a bike share company, in an attempt to make a multiple forms of transportation available to its app users. While financial terms were not disclosed, the option of bicycle use is forecasted to be more affordable.